Discussion Questions- Noted by Pastor Keith McMinn

Chapter 17: The Justice of God

1. Why can there not be “a principle of justice outside of God which compels Him to act in a certain way?”

2. What does the following statement mean? “The vague and tenuous hope that God is too kind to punish the ungodly has become a deadly opiate for the consciences of millions.”

3. What does justice embody?

4. What is the “error in thinking” about God’s justice that Tozer mentions?

5. How do you resonate with, “God is never at cross-purposes with Himself?” (Tozer, 88)

6. Could God be good if He were not just?

7. How is God’s justice satisfied?
