

Knowledge of the Holy- A.W. Tozer

Discussion Questions- Noted by Pastor Keith McMinn

Chapter 5: The Self-existence of God

1. Why is the following idea hard to grasp? “To think steadily of that to which the idea of origin cannot apply is not easy, if indeed it is possible at all.”

2. Why do humans feel uneasy about the Uncreated?

3. What does Tozer mean when he states, “. . .all our problems and their solutions are theological.”? Do you agree and if so, why? [Help: theology is concisely defined as the study of God.

4. What is Tozer setting forth when he says, “Not man only, but everything that exists came out of and is dependent upon the continuing creative impulse.”? Here again, what sin does this stream of thinking destroy?

5. What is one mark of God’s image in man?

6. Where does the rebellion from God mentioned on page 29 derive from? How does our society add coals to the fire of man-centeredness thinking?

7. Why is the natural man a sinner?

8. What must Christ do to save us completely?
